GOLDEN VALLEY.

Mrs. Hattie Gullett, Reporter.

Nov 10—He that diggeth a pit for his neighbor shall fall therein himself, and some have dug some awful pits in Allen county and now the time will come for a fall.

John Ruthsotz had to go to Iola to get some dental work done. A number are having trouble with their teeth and some with their hearts. Teeth can be filled or pulled.

The wild strawberries are in bloom. We were in Iola Tuesday and visited the dental office of Dr. Pepper. That is one place the poets have failed to write up—the pleasures of a dental office.

Mrs. Preston and Wayne went to LaHarpe Wednesday.

The Teacher's Association was well attended last Saturday and was unusually interesting. Each who had a part on the program did well, but Mrs. Collin's explanation of her methods of teaching composition was especially helpful. Our people can not realize how much they are missing or they would attend these meetings regularly.

Grandma Reese who has suffered so long and patiently, entered into rest last Saturday. The funeral at the M. E. church on Sabbath morning was large and the service was impressive. All of her children and many of her grandchildren were present, but most of those that gathered there that morning felt that friends as well as relatives were mourners, for she was tenderly loved by many.

Nov. 11 being the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage, J. C. Strong thought to celebrate the occasion last Saturday evening by entertaining his relatives and a few of his neighbors, but decided to surprise Mrs. Strong. Though his plans were carefully laid his wife had her suspicions but they fell far short of the reality. Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Nelson and Mr. and Mrs. James Montgomery and Jamie were over from Iola; Mrs. Richards from Nevada, Mo.; W. T. Strong and family, Mrs. Barton, Mrs. and Miss McGlashan were the relatives present. It was sincerely regretted that Mr. McGlashan was unavoidably detained. The occasion was delightful and the guests enjoyed the abundant hospitality which is a characteristic of the Strong's. While the refreshments were being served a handsome silver tea set was brought in that the bride might pour the tea. This gift from the brothers and sisters was a genuine surprise to both Mr. and Mrs. Strong. Nor were they the only ones who disregarded their host's request to bring no presents, for a goodly number of substantial tokens of their love and good wishes were left when at late hour the company scattered to their homes.

To remove a troublesome corn of bunion: First soak the corn or bunion in warm water to soften it, then pare it down as closely as possible without drawing blood and apply Chamberlain's Pain Balm twice daily; rubbing vigorously for five minutes at each application. A corn plaster should be worn for a few days, to protect it from the shoe. As a general liniment for sprains, bruises, lameness and rheumatism, Pain Balm is unequalled. For sale by Iola Druggists.
